

Senior Artists Initiative News

Volume 4, March 25, 2020

SAI Response to Corona Virus

Since the Covid-19 virus has limited the activity of most people SAI has selected some of its best videos so that our followers will have another option for things to watch. SAI has more than one hundred artists videos online. They can be accessed through the Artists Video Theater link at the SAI website. While you are there please check out our recently added video educational modules in the Kaplan Learning Center.

Recommended Videos

Edward Loper, Jr: <https://vimeo.com/328869761>

Mitch Lyons: <https://vimeo.com/358620710>

Arlene Love: <https://vimeo.com/41073780>

Carol Moore: <https://vimeo.com/12098612>

George Anthonisen: <https://vimeo.com/209134065>

Martha Madigan: <https://vimeo.com/257758455>

Mark Sfirri: <https://vimeo.com/40980233>

Mavis Smith: <https://vimeo.com/290326952>

Mitch Lyons: <https://vimeo.com/358620710>

Peter Pone: <https://vimeo.com/12138703>

Tom Porett: <https://vimeo.com/28686194>

Grants from the Velocity Fund

The Velocity Fund directly supports artists to organize new collaborative projects throughout the city of Philadelphia by awarding grants up to $5000. Philadelphia's visual artists are a diverse community of makers and thinkers from multiple social, economic and cultural backgrounds; The Velocity Fund is open to a wide range of experimental practices, particularly those that emphasize collaboration between artistic genres leading to expanded audiences, fresh outcomes and an enriched multi-disciplinary discourse. Interested artists should visit the News and Events Page at the Fund's website. Currently some informational sessions that will occur online.

Wishing all good health to all in these challenging times.